Envipco – Additional Tier 1 Retailers Scotland

Amersfoort, The Netherlands – January 30, 2023 – Envipco, a global provider of recycling systems and reverse vending machines (RVMs), announces the award of ~240 Reverse Vending Machines to be deployed in two of the largest UK retailers operating in Scotland representing 70% of their requirements. Using both Envipco's Optima and Flex technology platforms, the machines will be delivered starting in Q2.

'Envipco continues to demonstrate strong performance in Scotland with these market leading retailers choosing Envipco for the majority of their store locations. The Flex platform for small store locations and Optima for larger stores provide the flexibility to deploy Envipco technology in all of their store formats' remarks Simon Bolton, CEO of Envipco.
